Amadeus Lodge

No. 9539

Consecrated in 1994 by a group of professional and amateur musicians, singers and entertainers, the lodge has members with a wide variety of musical, theatrical & performing talents. The lodge also has members who appreciate the talents of entertainers or a nonperforming interest in the arts.

Whilst Freemasonry helps our members become better citizens & live life to a high moral code, we believe that this should be done whilst enjoying ourselves as well as raising funds for local charities and the community.

We have a strong support network amongst our members which covers all aspects of life inside and outside of the Lodge setting, this also extends across the other Lodges at Dore Freemasons' Hall where we view

We are a progressive Lodge where you will enjoy the essential traditional elements of freemasonry in a friendly, convivial and respectful setting followed by a jovial and fun Festive Board with regular Entertainment provided by our members or from visiting Cabaret acts.
