Meridian Lodge Of Derbyshire No. 9629

Founded in 1996, was the first 'Daylight Lodge Consecrated in Derbyshire, in response to growing interest from members/ / candidates who are unable to attend/ join evening Lodges. Members are from a range of professions and backgrounds and who enjoy fellowship and charitable activity. Daylight Freemasonry provides an opportunity to meet in a relaxed environment among many members who are Past Masters and have experience in a variety of area's essential for new members to learn. Several Freemasons have chosen Meridian Lodge as an extension of their existing Masonic activity, but many have also joined due to evening commitments e.g., work, family care commitments etc. Others because of transport issues, such as driving at night or just being away from home until late evening. Reasons can be numerous!
