Bretby Lodge

No. 9063

Bretby Lodge No 9063 was warranted on the 10th of December 1982. Our lodge was then consecrated on the Monday 14th January 1983. The name "Bretby" is taken from a small village not far from Burton Masonic Temple here in South Derbyshire, a village which is full of history. With our roots placed firmly in Burton-on-Trent, we support local charities and our community whilst supporting our members through the Masonic values of Integrity, Friendship, Respect & Charity. We have a healthy membership of all ages, many of whom are in their prime, working and having younger families. We enjoy our Freemasonry and the principles it promotes. We also enjoy meeting socially and many of us have made great friendships will appeal to potential members.
