Carnarvon Lodge

No. 1739

Carnarvon Lodge is a Freemasons lodge which was formed in 1878 and has been meeting continuously, nine times a year, ever since on the third Tuesday of the month at 18:30. Originally formed in Church Gresley, we are now located at the Freemasons Hall, Ashfield House, Burton on Trent. Our Masonic Lodge is part of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Derbyshire which has more than 70 Lodge's meeting in 17 Masonic halls throughout the County. As a Freemasons Lodge, our aim is to develop new members to become better citizens through our mentoring program and to support the local community through charitable activities. We have over the years supported a large number of local charities and good causes, these include care Leavers, Alzheimers, local hospices, adults with social and learning difficulties, scouts and sea cadets. Carnarvon Lodge has many members from all walks of life, all of whom enjoy the bond of friendship and brotherhood. If you like helping others and the community then Carnarvon Lodge is the place for you.
