Burlington Lodge

No. 6736

Post War, it was evident that membership of the Derby Lodges was too large with 100 no. Brethren per Lodge. To alleviate this, Burlington Lodge was consecrated in 1949 and it was named after the Duke of Devonshire's third title, Earl of Burlington, who, in 1948 had become the Grand Master.

Our members come from all walks of life and enjoy the fellowship that Masonry brings. We are a group of like minded individuals that have formed a close bond and who welcome new members to join in.

Burlington Lodge has always been considered a very friendly Lodge, attracting members from various backgrounds and professions. These include construction, manufacturing, financial and service sectors, which makes for an interesting mix of personalities and experience. We pride ourselves on our ritual and most importantly, we enjoy our Masonry.
