Liversage Lodge

No. 5027

Liversage Lodge was founded in Derby in 1927. The motto of the Lodge 'Dare quam accipere' translates as -To give is better than to receive. It is named after a 15th century local benefactor who founded the Liversage Trust to benefit the inhabitants of Derby.

We hold our meeting which usually consist of a ceremony or a talk on a masonic subject. These meetings usually last for 90 minutes and we then attend a meal called the Festive Board.

We offer friendship and support within the principles of Grand Lodge Freemasonry. We consist of a mixed membership across a number of professions.

How To Join

- Speak to one of our members
