St Werburga Lodge

No. 4147

Borne of the Lodge of Repose 802, St Werburga Lodge 4147 was consecrated on 29th October 1920; named after the daughter of the first Christian King of Mercia. It has been home to four PGMs. Both Spencer Lodge 8773 and Cornucopia Lodge 9925 are our daughters.

We are supportive of each other's progress in Freemasonry, and in delivering a consistently high standard of ritual, whilst at the same time, taking care to ensure that all Brethren engage with, and enjoy, all their Masonic activities.

St Werburga is a dynamic, vibrant go ahead lodge that takes its Freemasonry seriously, yet knows how to have fun! It has a perfect balance of youthful energy and drive, and experienced sage wisdom to ensure that all members feel a sense of belonging, togetherness and progressing together.
