United Service Lodge Of Derbyshire No. 3993

The Lodge was formed in 1919 by Officers of The Sherwood Foresters who wished to stay in touch after war. it very quickly became tri-service. In 1970 due to the lack of retiring servicemen the Lodge took the decision to allow men with no service background to join.

The newly joined members are given extra instruction on Lodge evenings and are encouraged to join practises when appropriate.

Whilst we are all Freemasons' if you add the military ethos to the proceedings it makes a military Lodge just that little bit more special.
